

College level Reading - Requires attention

do detail.

Critical Reading means to look below

the surface.

Gulp down food w/out chewing -

Indigestion!

The Essay . . . what is important!

* The title -> subject + the "inviting door"
verses the "uninviting"

* Author -> background can help you better understand.

Example: Mairs (essay on pg. 13) has a disease that influences her viewpoint.

* Published? -> this can tell you "for whom"

it is meant for.

Always think

As a college writer - Audience.
