

World Geography Quarterly Instructional Objectives:

First Quarter:

- Five themes of geography
- Map skills
- Earth and sun relationships
- World climates
- Challenges of rapid population growth
- 13 Canadian provinces and 50 United States and North American landforms and water features
- Culture of North and South America
- Countries, cities, landforms, and water features of Latin America
- Governments, economies, culture, and history of Latin America
- Current events in Geography
- Reading in the content area

Second Quarter:

- Locate major European countries, landforms, and water features
- European history and culture
- Economies in Europe
- Types of governments in Europe
- Natural resources and industries of Europe
- Population issues in China and India
- History and culture of China and India
- Types of government and economic activities in China and India
- Governments, economies, history, and culture of Japan, North Korea, and South Korea
- Current events in Geography
- Reading in the content area

Third Quarter:

- Locate major Asian countries, cities, landforms, and water features
- Population issues in South Asia and India
- History and culture of South Asia and India
- Types of government and economic activities in South Asia and India
- Culture of the Middle East
- Locate countries, landforms, and water features of South West Asia and Africa
- Identify climate types and their impact on life in South West Asia and Africa
- Conflicts of the Middle East
- Natural resources of South West Asia, Africa and the Middle East
- Locate countries, landforms, and water features of Southeast Asia
- Types of economies, cultures, governments, and history of Southeast Asia
- Current events in Geography
- Reading in the content area

Fourth Quarter:

- Locate countries, cities, landforms, and water features of Africa south of the Sahara
- Identify governments, economies, history, and culture of Africa south of the Sahara
- Apartheid in South Africa
- Population trends and issues in Africa
- Climate types in Africa
- Locate countries, cities, landforms, and water features of Australia and Oceania
- Climate types of Australia and Oceania
- Governments, economies, history, and culture of Australia and Oceania
- Current events in Geography
- Reading in the content area